2. Our attention has been drawn to an order recorded by this Court on 15th September, 1999 in identical matters, in special civil application no. 6580 with other matters of 1999.

3. Since the request for reconsideration of the ad interim order has yet not been adjudicated upon, it would be, at this stage, expedient to direct the appellate authority to decide and determine all such applications in this group of matters within a period of eight weeks from today. It is also not disputed that since the applications are pending, until they are disposed of, no coercive actions shall be taken till then. Rule is made absolute accordingly with no order as to costs.
